Happy Symphonia Summernight: "Symphonic Wind Orchestra did not let any wish opened during concert at Girsberg"...

Ofcourse it was beautiful surroundings, when somebody could listen to "symphony of summernight" in warm, pleasant night under the sky. Yet great acoustics of "cultural barn" at Girsberg Castle brought quality of top wind orchestra from Kreuzlingen and so wonderful respect, that listeners could not be sad in any moment of experienced live enjoyment during saturday night concert.

Wind music of delicacies

Soon music lovers whom completely sold out the concert hall, agreed that visit at Girsberg was worth it. Because what Kreuzlingen Symphonic Wind Orchestra (SBO) and especially exquisite guest soloist and great performer Milan Rericha (clarinet) showed, was demanding wind music with all delicacies. Especially Rericha's music full of humor in Rhapsody in Blue by George Gershwin in second half, and after interval when everybody thought the spirit of the evening cannot not be any better, was cause of enormous enthusiasm.

Performance of highest quality has been shown

Already in first half of the evening high level has been shown by solist's neat as well as virtuoso performance of Gioachino Rossini's Introduction, Theme and Variations, to be beat it a bit later. Besides that this concert introduced SBO Orchestra in brilliant shape. It really did not matter if it was classical music, valse, polka or symphony, under the lead of Stefan Roth, that night performing Orchestra arranged two and entertaining hours.

The one who was present at this concert night at Girsberg and was humming for himself on his way back home or at least smiling, could not be happier.
